

North Van Arts seeks artist instructors for our After-School-Art programme held in North Vancouver city and district elementary schools (SD44). Artists, practitioners and makers working across all disciplines are encouraged to apply.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Facilitate weekly art classes for young people grades K-4 & 3-7 that fulfills SD44 curriculum goals. Classes are organized in 6-week or 8-week sections
- Demonstrate material processes, techniques and concepts
- Manage classes of up to 12 students
- Submit course outline and supply list for approval to reporting manager
- Ensure student safety at all times
- Art room set up and clean up
- Some lifting and/or physicality may be required for this position (lifting up to 30 pounds)

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Arts education, training, experience or background
- Ability to meet deadlines and communicate effectively with program manager, school staff and parents
- Highly dependable, responsible, punctual and able to complete duties without supervision
- Diverse knowledge of the arts, practices, processes or methods
- Passionate about strengthening local arts, culture, heritage and community
- Previous teaching experience is an asset

REMUNERATION: $35/hr

APPLICATION DEADLINE: September 17, 2018, midnight

HOW TO APPLY:

Please email your cover letter expressing your interest and a copy of your CV/resume to Todd Evanger, Arts Education Manager: todd@northvanarts.ca. Please include "Call for Artist Instructors" in the subject line.

All contracted instructors must agree to obtain and provide a Police Information Check prior to start date.